

Stories of Chinatown: A Walking Tour

Uncover the rich history and enduring legacies of Singapore's early Chinese settlers!

SUMMARY

Chinatown is the original enclave for Singapore's early Chinese settlers. Today, it has transformed into a vibrant and modern melting pot of hip F&B joints, alternative flashpacker hostels, cultural treasures, and retail gems.

Embark on a curated journey through the rich history and vibrant culture of Chinatown, starting just moments from your hotel! This 2-hour walking tour offers a captivating blend of iconic temples, historic landmarks, and hidden gems that tell the story of Singapore's diverse heritage. Highlights include visits to the ornate Thian Hock Keng Temple and the majestic Buddha Tooth Relic Temple, alongside fascinating stops like the lively Maxwell Food Centre. Perfect for travelers seeking an authentic glimpse of Singapore, this tour concludes at Chinatown Complex, the largest hawker center on the island, where the old and new intertwine seamlessly.

Get your best walking shoes and your trusty camera ready for the road!

TOUR DETAIL

 Duration : 2 hours

 Tour price:
SGD$120 for 2 persons
SGD$20 per additional person

CLOSE-OUT DATES

2025 - Jan 1 (New year's), Jan 29-31 (CNY Period, with possible extension), Dec 31

(Subject to changes and surcharges on certain dates such as public holidays)

HIGHLIGHTS

01

Stroll Through Chinatown Street

Begin your journey with a walk through the many streets of Chinatown, where colorful shophouses and bustling markets offer a glimpse into Singapore's rich multicultural heritage.

02

Explore Our Temples

Step into the serene sanctuaries of Thian Hock Keng and the Buddha Tooth Relic Temple, two of Singapore's most revered spiritual sites. Learn about their intricate architecture and cultural significance to Singaporeans.

03

Discover Our Local Foods

Dive into Singapore's culinary culture at Maxwell Food Centre, where legendary hawker stalls serve up beloved local dishes. This iconic food haven is a must-visit for any traveler eager to taste the true flavors of Singapore.

04

Step Into History

Uncover the stories of Chinatown at the Chinatown Heritage Centre, where restored shophouses transport you back to the 1950s. Explore authentic recreations of cramped living quarters and hear the powerful narratives of those who helped shape the city we know today.

